Drink and the world drinks with you, swear off, and you go it alone; for the barroom bum who drinks your rum has a querulous thirst of his own. Feast and your friends are many, fast and they cut you dead; they'll not get mad if you treat them bad so long as their stomachs are fed. Steal, if you can get a million; for you can furnish bail. It's a great big thief who gets out on leave, and the little one who goes to jail. Advertise, and the dollars will come, quit and they fall to arrive; for how are the men who have money to spend, going to know you are still alive?

Elder M. G. Buckner and family will this week return to Kentucky from Texas.

Eddie, aged 9, and Walter, aged 11, sons of Mr. Jacob Schwab of Ripley, were in swimming yesterday at noon below the wharf at Ripley, when one got beyond his depth and began crying for help. His brother attempted to save him, and both were drowned. Their bodies were recovered last evening at 6 o'clock.

Miss Mary Claire, daughter of the late Patrick Claire of this county and a sister of Mrs. Henry R. Childs, died yesterday in Lexington. The remains will be brought here this evening and taken to Mr. Childs' residence on the Fleming pike. The hour of the funeral had not been determined, but the interment will be in Washington Cemetery.

Mr. A. B. Deavers of Paris and Miss Pearl Steel Campbell of Carlisle were married by Rev. John C. Molloy at the Central Hotel at 9 o'clock last night. The young couple were both of age and were simply avoiding any formal ceremony at home. The bride was elegantly attired and is a really beautiful girl. The groom is a prosperous fellow and the two start out upon life's journey with every sail set to a happy breeze.

Mrs. Emma Oldfield of St. Mary's, W. Va., has written to Chief of Police Donovan here in regard to her son, Everett Oldfield. A false report had reached Paris. Oldfield that a riot resulted at the recent show by Markels & Swallows on the river at this point, and that during the melee her son was shot, he now being in the Cincinnati Hospital. No such affair occurred here and nothing is known of the boy. The letter states he had been at work for a man by the name of Abe Cheeks.

The following very funny episode happened on Third street yesterday in which figured two little fellows and a drummer who was passing to the L. and N. Station at the noon hour. The germ of commercial life had sprouted in their young hearts and taken visible form in a lemonade stand. Two well filled jars of the refreshing beverage were ready for customers, one bearing a conspicuous sign "3c per glass," the other "5c per glass." The drummer remembering his embryonic days in business, had his heart of pity touched and he decided to assist the boys. "Give me a glass of the 3-cent kind," of which he partook with a relishing smack. "Now let me try the 5-cent kind." This he quaffed with infinite pleasure. "Now, young fellows I can taste no difference. Please enlighten me why you make a difference in the price?" Well, the jar marked 3c we let the pup fall in, and we thought it not right to charge full price." The drummer did not wait for more details.

Commissioner of Internal Revenue Yerkes has ruled that Banks or stationers cannot make claims for the redemption of documentary stamps belonging to customers or others, but may purchase such stamps and make claims in their own names.

SHOOTING AT ORANGEBURG.

Two Farmers Have a Difficulty Over a Line Fence.

A shooting between two well-known farmers occurred early yesterday morning in the Orangeburg neighborhood. Thad Bullock and George Calvert own adjoining farms in that locality and for some time have been in litigation over a line fence.

According to Mr. Bullock's story, Mr. Calvert and his hands went out yesterday morning to move this fence over on Mr. Bullock's place.

Mr. Bullock ordered him to stop, and later went to the house and got his rifle. Returning he repeated his orders, when Mr. Calvert produced a gun, both farmers firing at each other simultaneously.

Mr. Calvert's shot went wide of the mark, while Mr. Bullock's struck Mr. Calvert in the left thigh, inflicting a painful wound.

Before the shooting the hands had left the place.

Mr. Bullock came to this city and reported the occurrence, claiming he did not shoot to kill.

THE ELKS WILL MAKE IT GO

Maysville Will Have Sure Enough Fair This Year.

LET EVERYBODY PITCH IN AND HELP!

It's a go!
The Elks have said it!

At last night's meeting of Maysville Lodge No. 704, B. P. O. E., it was resolved with that "unanimity" for which the Best People on Earth are famed, that Maysville has been sick-a-bed long enough, and that if the old lady doesn't really intend to sleep herself to death she must be roused up and if necessary pulled out of bed by the heels.

As an initial step in the direction of waking the old dame, and also of waking a lot more sleepers around here, the Elks concluded to have a Fair this summer—and it will be a Fair with all the "frills" carefully looked after.

An Executive Committee—
Thomas A. Davis,
M. C. Russell,
J. David Dye,
Thomas M. Russell,
H. L. Hamilton,

was named to take entire charge and to appoint all the necessary sub-committees, the latter to report to the Executive Committee for its approval of all plans as to management, attractions, expenditure, &c.

Now, fellow-citizens, pinch yourselves to find out if you're alive; and if you really are, get up and shake the dust off and let's make the American Eagle scream.

The Executive Committee is requested to meet at 2 o'clock this afternoon at M. C. Russell & Son's to begin work.
